

| Province | Who can donate | Can companies/trade unions? | Maximum? | Limited only to a given year? | Limits on election expenses | Limits on amount contributed during a year or election period | Regulation of third party advertising during an election period | Blackout period | Restriction on opinions poll |
|------------------|---|---|---|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|---|---|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Alberta | Residents, corporations, trade unions, employee organizations | Yes | Yes; $15,000 to each registered party, $1,000 to any registered constituency association, $5,000 in the aggregate to the registered constituency associations of each reg. party | Yes | | Yes | | | |
| British Columbia | Individuals, companies. | Yes | No; only limits on anonymous contributions | - | Yes | | Yes | Yes | Yes |
| Manitoba | Only individuals | | Yes; $3,000 | Yes | Yes | Yes | | | |
| New Brunswick | Individuals, corporations, trade unions | Yes; corporations must do business in NB, trade unions must hold bargaining rights for NB workers | Yes; $6,000 | Yes | Yes | Yes | | Yes | |

| Province | Who can donate | Can companies/trade unions? | Maximum? | Limited only to a given year? | Limits on election expenses | Limits on amount contributed during a year or election period | Regulation of third party advertising during an election period | Blackout period | Restriction on opinions poll |
|--------------|--|---|-------------|--|-----------------------------|---|---|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Newfoundland | Individuals (do not have to be residents) corporations, trade unions | Yes; contrary to NB, corporations and trade unions do not need ties to Nfld. | No | - | Yes | | | Yes | |
| Nova Scotia | Individual residents | No | Yes; $5000 | Yes | Yes | | | | |
| Ontario | Individual resident, corporation, district labour councils/trade unions, officially endorsed affiliated political organizations; sources outside Ont. are prohibited | Corporations with active business in Ont., councils/trade unions that hold bargaining rights for Ont. employees | Yes | Max $15,500 for a non-election year: $9,300 to any provincial party; $1,240 to any constituency association, for a max of $6,200 to con. assocs. of the same party. Elections: extra contributions ok. | Yes | Yes | | Yes | |
| PEI | Individual persons, corporations and trade unions. | Yes | No | - | Yes | | | | |

| Province | Who can donate | Can companies/trade unions? | Maximum? | Limited only to a given year? | Limits on election expenses | Limits on amount contributed during a year or election period | Regulation of third party advertising during an election period | Blackout period | Restriction on opinions poll |
|--------------|--|-----------------------------|---|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|---|---|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Quebec | Only electors/people | No | Yes; $1,000 to each party or each individual contact | Yes | Yes | Yes | Yes | Yes | |
| Saskatchewan | Residents, corporations, trade unions. No individuals from outside Canada who are not Canadian citizens. | Yes | - | - | Yes | | | | |
| Canada | Only individuals who are citizens or permanent residents of Canada | | 1,100 to registered parties | | Yes | | Yes | Yes | Yes |